

Satellite radio is great and should not be limited. I still listen to regular FM and AM radio stations just not on long trips. I'm sure that there is room for all radio stations to operate profitably.